METROPOLITAN RAILWAY IS TO USE MORE AIR POWER.

President H. H. Vreeland Says Compressed Air Is to Be Used on a Number of the Crosstown Lines. Contractors Suffer the Loss of Property Through Vandalism—The Promotion of Chief Clerk Reigert, of Superintendent Russell's Office, Make Up of D. L. & W. Board.

In an interview published in the morning papers with H. H. Vreeland, president of the Metropolitan Street Railway, he stated: "Our experience in providing underground electric traction for the Fifty-ninth and Twenty-third streets crosstown lines demonstrated that the removal and replacement of the pipe obstructions along the avenues was so costly as to render underground crosstown building almost prohibitive, and we are, in consequence, making extensive experiments with traction systems, which will obviate this great outlay, as, for instance, on the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth streets lines, with compressed air, and on the Thirty-fourth street line, where we are preparing to test the storage battery system."

"It would have been quite as reasonable to have said we were going to abandon electricity when we began experiments with air power, as to say now we are to abandon air power because we undertake to experiment with the storage battery. So far from abandoning the use of air power, we are equipping the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth streets roads with new heavy rails, and are awaiting an entire new equipment of cars with a different type of motor from those now in use, in which all the defects experimentally developed in the first lot are eliminated. These cars will be delivered within a few weeks."—Mail and Express.

Contractors' Property Destroyed.

Burke Brothers, the contractors, who are engaged in building a retaining wall between Foster and Nicholson over a creek which crosses the land to be used by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company in erecting a branch to Carlucci's stone quarry, suffered the loss of about $500 by damage to their pile driver and other materials last Friday night.

It seems that the owners of the land on which the railroad will be run object to the branch and applied for an injunction in the courts of Susquehanna county, which was refused by the presiding judge. To vent their spite on the company and contractors the opposition forces destroyed the pile driver and cut up several hundred feet of rope into useless pieces and otherwise damaged property belonging to Burke Brothers. The matter has been reported to the Lackawanna officials and an investigation will be made. Several arrests are likely to follow.

This and That.

General Superintendent Russell expects to spend a few hours tomorrow with the master mechanics' convention at Saratoga. Superintendent Salisbury spent yesterday on the Southern division inspecting repairs and looking after new improvements. President W. H. Truesdale made a trip over the Bloomsburg division yesterday and visited several of the company's collieries along that line. He will return to New York today. Trainmaster F. P. Hamilton has moved his headquarters in the Lackawanna station from Superintendent Salisbury's office to the room formerly occupied by Time-keeper W. G. Wilson. The latter is now located in the new addition at the end of the main corridor.

Special Claim Agent O'Keefe, who has been in Buffalo for several months, is now at his office in this city and says that all of the obstacles in the way of the Lackawanna employees at Buffalo have been overcome. He is of the opinion that the police force in the Bison City are second to none in the United States.

Valentine Fitzpatrick, first vice-president of the National Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, who was in consultation with local brotherhood men in the city, returned to his home in Columbus, Ohio, yesterday. His visit had no particular significance, the men here say, but as Mr. Fitzpatrick was returning home from New York by way of Scranton he was induced to stop off here.

H. P. Reigert, chief clerk to General Superintendent E. G. Russell, will leave the Lackawanna employ about the first of July to accept the responsible position of purchasing agent on the St. Joe and Alden railroad. The new position will give Mr. Reigert a prominent place in the railroad world, and is the reward of hard work and strict application to duty. Since he has been identified with the Lackawanna road Mr. Reigert has proven a capable, conscientious and trustworthy employe, and it is with regret that Superintendent Russell parts with such a valued attache of his office. Although Mr. Reigert is a comparative stranger, nevertheless he has made many friends, particularly among the newspaper men, who have always received courteous treatment at his hands. His successor has not yet been named by Superintendent Russell.
